

PepinNini Sponsorship Slingsby Theatre performance of The Young King by Oscar Wilde –Students from Wiltja School in Adelaide

The Young King is adapted by playwright Nikki Bloom from a story by Oscar Wilde. The production by Slingsby is the world premiere of this adaption and season.

PepinNini is proud to sponsor Slingsby and glad to offer this performance to a group of students from the Wiltja School in Adelaide. The students are residential at the school and come from all parts of South Australia including the Anangu Pitjantjatjara Yankunytjatjara lands of far northwest South Australia.

Managing Director Rebecca Holland-Kennedy, pictured with the students commented that the play was very exciting and full of innovation and intrigue and PepinNini were extremely pleased to be able to offer this experience to the students and the Adelaide community.

